

What is Title IX?

Title IX is a federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in educational settings. Princeton University's Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy and the University Sexual Misconduct Policy prohibit sexual harassment and sexual misconduct. This includes:

- › Sexual Harassment
- › Sexual Assault (including Rape and Fondling)
- › Dating Violence and Domestic Violence
- › Stalking
- › Sexual Exploitation
- › Retaliation
- › Improper Conduct Related to Sex

How can we help?

The Office of Gender Equity and Title IX Administration provides the following services to students, faculty, and staff:

Please be aware that during consultations, individuals can share as much or as little information as they feel comfortable with; they don't have to share information they don't wish to share, including their name and/or the name of the other party.

Assists in obtaining supportive measures (including No Communication/No Contact Orders, academic supports, or housing changes)—with or without a formal investigation sexualmisconductinvestigations.princeton.edu/support-resources

Facilitates informal resolution process sexualmisconductinvestigations.princeton.edu/non-disciplinary-options

Conducts disciplinary investigations from a neutral standpoint sexualmisconductinvestigations.princeton.edu/information-parties

Oversees policies and procedures related to sexual misconduct sexualmisconduct.princeton.edu

Develops and provides trainings related to preventing sexual misconduct

Between 2014-2020, the Office investigated and adjudicated 132 formal complaints and provided support and resources to over 575 students and over 100 faculty/staff members.

office of Gender Equity & Title IX
administration

For more information, please contact the Office of Gender Equity & Title IX Administration at ptitleix@princeton.edu

Is the Office of Gender Equity and Title IX Administration a confidential resource?

While the Office of Gender Equity and Title IX Administration handles matters in a discreet manner, it is not a confidential resource. We recommend that individuals who have experienced harm explore their options with confidential resources such as:

- SHARE (Sexual Harassment/Assault Advising Resources and Education)
24/7 • For students
share.princeton.edu
- Womanspace
24/7 • For all • Off-campus womanspace.org
- Carebridge
24/7 • For graduate students, faculty, and staff
• Off-campus
hr.princeton.edu/thrive/well-being-resources/employee-assistance-program-eap
- Counseling and Psychological Services and University Health Services
24/7 • For students
uhs.princeton.edu
- Office of Religious Life
• For all religiouslife.princeton.edu